

Timber Cove

October 2019

R
A
I
L

S
U
P P
O
R
T
E
R
S

Claudia Giacinto performs at Moonlight Bistro as donated auction items hang above

Moonlight Bistro

Our Annual Fundraiser to support Timber Cove Trails was our best yet in all ways, thanks to Kris Kilgore, Gail Wight, Janet and Michael Smith-Heimer, Kathi Lloyd, and others who prepared or helped with a Francophile feast served in a romantic setting under the Harvest Moon. Steve Wight provided a really wonderful collection of French music from all eras he called "French Cafe." The weather was perfect and live musical entertainment included Eric Tamm, Jack Marshall, Lorrie Uribe, and Claudia Giacinto.. Proceeds from the event itself brought in over $5,000, and the donation items were of such high quality that we have reserved them to offer in an online auction. (See below)

Merci beaucoup to everyone who came and donated their efforts and talent and also those who could not attend, but mailed in their donations anyway!. It will be hard to top this event next year, but we will try.

New Online Auction Page!

The donated objets d'art were so impressive that we have started construction of an online auction venue. You can visit our preliminary attempt at <https://www.timbercovetrails.org/auction.html>.

Soon we hope to have an online payment portal through Paypal, but meanwhile you can make your bids manually by contacting us at the email address below. One silk print, Full Moon over Tide Pool by Gail Wight, has already attracted a bid of $1,000 by Kris Kilgore. We eventually hope to join Ebay for Charities and make this an ongoing part of our fundraising.

timbercovetrails.org

Update on Legal Actions to Protect our Private Walking Trails

Defendants McCabe & Black Make Offer

Defendants Merim McCabe and Scott Black, through their attorney, Bert Terreri, offered to concede the validity of the trails if the plaintiffs purchased their Timber Cove lots, which are now for sale. Plaintiffs, through their attorney, declined the offer.

Plaintiffs Will Be Deposed!

Defendants One and Two (please note that Two has reverted to the real spelling of his last name instead of the one known to all of us previously, "Tow") through their attorney Peter Mallon. has called for the depositions of all plaintiffs. We are looking forward to this opportunity to speak to Mr. Mallon and these defendants.

Have You Done Your Part?

These six miles of uniquely beautiful private trails belong to all of us and add great value to our community, both aesthetically and financially. Help us to preserve them for future generations. Please send your tax-deductible donation to:

Timber Cove Foundation
Lorrie Uribe, Treasurer
22142 Amanita Circle
Jenner, CA 95450
Memo: trail preservation fund

Jack Marshall performs at Moonlight Bistro

contact: timbercovetrails@gmail.com

Montage of Moonlight Bistro, September 14, 2019

